"prøv å si noe til meg nå"

"prøv å si noe til meg nå" is a compact album, where almost all the music and lyrics are written by Valkyrien. You can still hear the traditional sound the band is known for, but this time the audience will be served tradition on a bed of acoustic pop music – with not insignificant amounts of synths. One can even dance to it without having to take a dance course. "prøv å si noe til meg nå" is Valkyrien's fifth album.

A band in flux

From when Valkyrien released their self-titled debut album in 2007, an album that quickly sold to gold, they've continued to explore and challenge the use of traditional instrument and old Norwegian music in a contemporary expression. The band has been unusually active and they have, after over 10 years of touring, evolved into a solid and playful live act that never plays two similar concerts. Valkyrien is a band in flux. What began as a mere fiddle trio, has developed into something that simply is a little hard to describe – it must be experienced.
